

SMSC Evidence at Rockland St Mary Primary School 2025-2026

At Rockland St Mary, our values Believe, Explore, Achieve run through every aspect of our SMSC provision. Each strand of SMSC supports children to grow into confident, inquisitive and successful learners who enjoy their childhood and develop as fully rounded individuals.

BELIEVE - We believe in ourselves and others

Spiritual

- Opportunities for reflection (assemblies, outdoor learning, RE, circle time) help pupils develop self-awareness and confidence.
- Celebrating effort, resilience and personal growth in class, assemblies and sports events nurtures self-belief.
- Creative subjects (art, music, dance) encourage children to express themselves and value their uniqueness.

Moral

- Clear behaviour expectations and restorative approaches help children believe they can make positive choices.
- Ethical discussions (PSHE, RE, debates) build confidence in expressing values and viewpoints.
- Leadership roles (play leaders, school council, eco council) build trust in themselves as responsible individuals.

Social

- Mixed-age play and lunch seating help children feel valued and supported by others.
- Team sports and group activities encourage pupils to believe in their ability to contribute and succeed.
- Community involvement (charity events, themed days, visitors) helps pupils feel part of something bigger.

Cultural

- Exposure to a range of beliefs, traditions, music, languages and arts helps children believe that diversity is valuable and celebrated.

- Trips and visitors broaden horizons and develop pride in their identity and community.

EXPLORE - We are curious and love learning

Spiritual

- Visits to places like nature reserves, farms and museums inspire awe, wonder and curiosity.
- Reflection activities prompt children to explore their feelings, identity and beliefs.

Moral

- PSHE and philosophy-style discussions allow children to explore complex ideas such as fairness, equality and responsibility.
- Sports competitions teach pupils to explore the impact of choices, rules and fair play.

Social

- Collaboration in lessons, clubs and wider activities encourages pupils to explore different viewpoints and learn from others.
- Wraparound care activities, mixed play and cross-year groups help pupils explore friendships and social situations safely.

Cultural

- Music, French, RE, and multicultural events allow pupils to explore diverse traditions.
- Trips to cultural sites and interactions with visitors (Reverend John, Buddhist guests, community members) help children explore the wider world.

ACHIEVE - We always do our best

Spiritual

- Children experience pride and fulfilment through activities such as performances, creative projects and reflective achievements.
- Calm, supportive learning environments help pupils achieve a sense of wellbeing.

Moral

- Understanding responsibility and perseverance supports children to achieve in behaviour, learning and personal development.
- Taking ownership of their actions (e.g., restorative conversations, peer leadership) helps them achieve maturity and independence.

Social

- Teamwork in sports festivals, competitions, and class projects enables children to achieve collective success.
- Active involvement in school and eco councils empowers pupils to achieve change and make meaningful contributions.

Cultural

- Celebrating cultural diversity helps children achieve a broad and enriched understanding of the world.
- Participation in festivals, performances and creative subjects allows pupils to achieve in artistic and cultural domains.

SMSC is therefore not an add-on—it is central to how the school lives its mission and nurtures confident, inquisitive and successful learners.

The evidence collected and tabled below gives some examples of where SMSC can be evidenced in school and has been collected through –

- Learning walks within school (including observations and QA's)
- Staff meeting discussions, training and feedback
- Curriculum progression maps
- Timetabled events (school calendar/trips tracker)
- Weekly Assemblies
- Staff, Parents and Pupil Voice
